It was learned in the Bonshaw district on Wednesday last that Private Sydney Herbert ("Nipper") Chisholm, youngest son of Mrs. Chisholm, of Willara, Bonshaw, had been killed in action. The Chisholm family have, indeed, a proud war record, for no less than four out of five sons joined the colors, and the only remaining one has been rejected on several occasions. The names of the other brothers still fighting are Harry, Walter, and T. J. ("Dick.")
